

Dialectical Journal:

Claim & Reading Focus: According to the article/essay/ story, " _____ " by _____ , _____ .
Identify Main Characters/Artchetypes The author states that, " He [Coyote] made the Indians, and put them out in tribes all over the world because Old Man Above wanted the earth to be inhabited all oer, not just in one or two places." _____ _____ _____	What character traits are revealed based on their role in the story? From this quote, I learned Coyote is an important figure in creation. He makes humanity and organizes them in "tribes" all over the world. _____ _____ _____
Identify Main Characters/Artchetypes " Coyote liked to play tricks. He thought about himself all the time, and told everyone he was a great warrior, but he was not _____ " is an important point.	Describe Trickster archetype This quote explains _____ _____ _____
Depiction of Nature through Figurative Language The author explains that, " Some times he made mistakes, and even though he was wise and powerful, he did many foolish things. But that was his way _____ ."	What idea does this represent about the state of nature? This detail helps readers understand _____ _____ _____
Depiction of Nature through Figurative Language Descriptions such as, " Coyote tried [to move the mountain], but he could not do it. He thought this was strange. He tried again, but he could not do it. _____ ."	What idea does this represent about the state of nature? This information made clear that _____ _____ _____
What moral lesson is communicated through the story's resolution? According to the Nez Perce, " _____ _____ _____	Analysis This helps the reader realize that _____ _____ _____