

Question	As you read, keep track of questions to help you understand what you are reading. 1. Describe events in ACT II which mark the RISING ACTION?                  2. What characters' actions in ACT II reveal Puritan attitudes?                  3. Find examples of the persuasive power of imagery.
	Monitor	DIRECT QUOTE: The quote, " _____                  _____                  _____" (p. ____ )	STUDENT RESPONSE: demonstrates/shows/ proves/ reveals _____                  _____                  _____
		The quote, " _____                  _____                  _____" (p. ____ )	demonstrates/shows/ proves/ reveals _____                  _____                  _____
		The quote, " _____                  _____                  _____" (p. ____ )	demonstrates/shows/ proves/ reveals _____                  _____                  _____
		The quote, " _____                  _____                  _____" (p. ____ )	demonstrates/shows/ proves/ reveals _____                  _____                  _____
Summarize	First, _____	Then, _____	Finally, _____
	Evaluate Analyze dialogue between the characters in ACT II and find examples of the way that IMAGERY is used and manipulated by characters to garner power over the town of Salem.

