

Question	As you read, keep track of questions to help you understand what you are reading. 1. Describe the most important events in ACT IV                  2. What do specific characters' actions make John Proctor an archetypal tragic hero?                  3. What does the play's resolution reveal about what the author believes about human nature?                  Based on this assumption about human nature, what does Miller believe should be the role of government?
Monitor	DIRECT QUOTE: The quote, " _____                  _____                  _____" (p. ____ )	STUDENT RESPONSE: demonstrates/shows/ proves/ reveals _____                  _____                  _____
	The quote, " _____                  _____                  _____" (p. ____ )	demonstrates/shows/ proves/ reveals _____                  _____                  _____
	The quote, " _____                  _____                  _____" (p. ____ )	demonstrates/shows/ proves/ reveals _____                  _____                  _____
	The quote, " _____                  _____                  _____" (p. ____ )	demonstrates/shows/ proves/ reveals _____                  _____                  _____
Summarize	First,	Then,	Finally,
Evaluate	What does the play's resolution reveal about human nature? Miller's views of society and government? What character best represents Miller's "ideal" American? Explain.

