

Family Search & Research

1. What country or countries did your family originally come from?
2. Is more than one language spoken in your home?
(Write about when you use it and who you use it with)
3. How does your family celebrate various holidays?
(Write about who are there, what kinds of foods are served, music and dancing.)
4. Are there things around the home that have been handed down in the family?
(Old pictures, books, furniture, knick-knacks, hand made items).
5. How important is religion to you and your family? What religious practices are important in your family?
6. With what culture do you primarily identify with?
7. Where did you grow up and what was the environment like? What type of people did you grow up with?
8. What are the values of your cultural/ethnic group? Which values do you like the best? Which values do you like the least?
9. Have you ever felt put down within your family or because of your racial identity, gender or how much you could afford? Why are these questions important?